View log/history(View Log/History Use Case)

Explanation:
The user enters the log list tab using selector. Then the user can choose one log to view. After the user presses the selector button to confirm the log to view, the program will display the review based on the data.

After the user goes back to the log list tab, the user can select the "Delete" option to delete that log record from the database.